

WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL – Encaustic Floor Tiles

Challenge

To conserve and restore what is considered to be the largest area of mediaeval ceramic tile in northern Europe.

Solution

Cliveden Conservation carried out exemplary repairs and reinstatement to the fine 14th Century tiles over a period of four years. The work included the removal of poor repairs, the re-bedding of many, and replacement of missing with new specially commissioned hand made and traditionally fired tiles.

Results

Mediaeval ceramic tiles restored. Tiled floor area reinstated successfully.
